

Photo used with permission | Adnan Adam Onart | aroom4light.org

by Peter McLoughlin

View Author Profile

Join the Conversation

Send your thoughts to Letters to the Editor. Learn more

September 20, 2019
Share on BlueskyShare on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

Take a moment to reflect on the photo.

I live my life in widening circles that reach out across the world.

I may not complete this last one but I give myself to it

I circle around God, around the primordial tower.

I've been circling for thousands of years and I still don't know: am I a falcon,

a storm, or a great song?

— Rainer Maria Rilke, Book of Hours, translated by Anita Barrows and Joanna Macy

---

What is one climate issue that you might advocate for? Write a letter, make a call, sign a petition, make a donation, cast a vote, etc. What would be your next step?

Effecting large-scale, systemic change for the planet can feel like a daunting, or impossible task. An organization that can be a companion on this journey is Green Faith — inspiring, educating, organizing, and mobilizing people of diverse religious and spiritual backgrounds globally for environmental action.

Green Faith's work is based on shared beliefs: "protecting the Earth is a sacred act… environmental stewardship is a moral responsibility."

Special thanks for the power of circles everywhere

Season of Creation Daily

pause | reflect | act

Editor's note: Season of Creation Daily is inspired by the Care for Our Common Home Ministry, Paulist Center Boston. To receive daily reflections by email, sign up here.

Advertisement

This story appears in the Season of Creation Daily feature series. View the full series.