News

(Unsplash/Daan Stevens)

by Brittany Wilmes

Engagement Editor

View Author Profile

Join the Conversation

Send your thoughts to Letters to the Editor. Learn more

March 18, 2020

Share on BlueskyShare on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

The coronavirus outbreak is changing the daily reality for citizens and health care workers around the world, especially as the number of infected people and deaths continue to rise.

We're in a chaotic time, and we're working to help you keep track of what's happening. Now we need your help.

If you work in Catholic health care, please use the form below to share your experience. Thank you for sharing with us.

Loading…

Advertisement

This story appears in the Tell Us feature series. View the full series.