PAUSE

REFLECT

When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,

I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.

I come into the peace of wild things

who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.

And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time

I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

- Wendell Berry, "The Peace of Wild Things"

At a moment filled with such uncertainty, how might you "rest in the grace of the world" for a time today?

PRAY

Prioritize at least five minutes today to "rest in the grace of the world" in the way you imagined above, or try one of these 12 Nature Friendly Things to Do While You're Stuck at Home, which includes beginning an indoor herb garden using
