by NCR Staff

View Author Profile

Join the Conversation

Send your thoughts to Letters to the Editor. Learn more

July 20, 2020

Share on BlueskyShare on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

On Thursday, July 23, staff writer Soli Salgado will present The Inspiration I've Found When On the Road with Global Sisters, a Zoom call for NCR Forward members. Soli will share stories about her experiences and the special people she met during her global travels for NCR and Global Sisters Report.

This event is the third of five in the NCR Forward Summer Series, an offering of special events by NCR staff available only to members.

To get access to this event, join NCR Forward for $5 a month or more. Members receive additional benefits, like a weekly members-only newsletter from NCR staff, editors and contributors, plus opportunities to weigh in on topics.

Advertisement

The NCR Forward program launched in 2018 as a way for web readers to support the journalism they read online. NCRonline content is open and available to all, though support from readers is required to make this access possible. NCR Forward now has more than 4,000 members from dozens of countries around the world.

Upcoming sessions in the NCR Forward Summer Series:

- August 13: Pope Francis after Seven Years (Vatican Correspondent/International News Editor Joshua McElwee)
- August 27: The Catholic Vote: Is it Still Decisive? (Political Columnist Michael Sean Winters)

You can learn more about the Summer Series and other NCR Forward membership benefits. Join NCR Forward here.

If you have questions about the membership program, please email membership@ncronline.org.