

Bishop Pablo Virgilio David of Caloocan, Philippines is pictured in a Feb. 15, 2019, photo. (CNS photo/Paul Jeffrey)

by Catholic News Service

View Author Profile

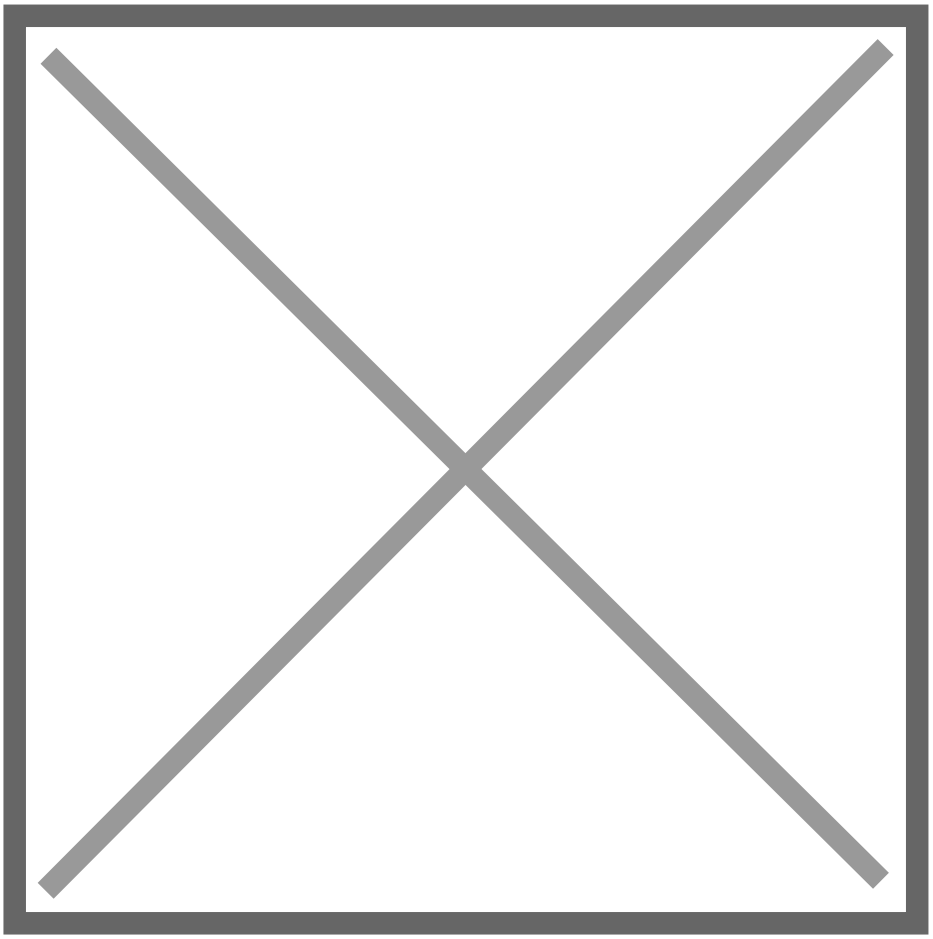

Join the Conversation

Send your thoughts to Letters to the Editor. Learn more

Manila, Philippines — July 9, 2021
Share on BlueskyShare on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

The Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines elected Bishop Pablo Virgilio David of Caloocan as its new president July 8. He will begin his two-year term as head of the conference Dec. 1.

David, 62, who has served as the conference's vice president for the last four years, will replace outgoing president Archbishop Romulo Valles of Davao, reported ucanews.com.

Bishop Pablo Virgilio David of Caloocan, Philippines is pictured in a Feb. 15, 2019, photo. (CNS photo/Paul Jeffrey)

He is well known as a staunch critic of President Rodrigo Duterte's war on illegal drugs. In 2017, he likened the thousands of victims to "slaughtered sheep."

Duterte told David in 2019: "You know if you are a priest and you want to attack me ... Listen, you son of a whore, get out of your pulpit. Don't use religion. Come here. In the church, you attack me. When I fight back, this will be hit."

Ucanews.com reported the bishop was also among several priests accused of sedition after videos surfaced online accusing Duterte's family of being involved in illegal drug operations.

David's diocese in the Philippine capital, Manila, was among the first to congratulate him.

"It is with great joy that our shepherd ... has been elected the new president of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines," it said in a Facebook post.

David attended Jesuit-run San Jose Seminary and Ateneo de Manila University, where he studied theology with former Manila archbishop Cardinal Luis Antonio Tagle, now prefect of the Vatican Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples.

Ucanews.com reported David also holds a doctorate in theology from the Catholic University of Louvain in Belgium.

Advertisement