News
EarthBeat

(Erik Witsoe/Unsplash)

by Margaret Nava

View Author Profile

Join the Conversation

Send your thoughts to Letters to the Editor. Learn more

August 14, 2021
Share on BlueskyShare on FacebookShare on TwitterEmail to a friendPrint

When my clothes dryer broke down, I replaced it with clothes line strung in my garage. It took a while to get used to air-dried towels but I found out they make great back-scratchers and I don't have to buy dryer sheets — it's a win, win situation!

Aside from not owning a dryer, Margaret Nava of Rio Rancho, New Mexico, gave away her microwave, grows and preserves her own vegetables and turned her SUV into a camper.

Advertisement

This story appears in the Small Earth Stories feature series. View the full series.