

Intentional Eucharistic Communities

Thomas C. Fox | May. 14, 2009 NCR Today

A national gathering of Intentional Eucharistic Communities [1] is scheduled to open in Chevy Chase, MD., tomorrow. I recently talked with William D'Antonio -- a professor of the sociology of religion and well-regarded researcher -- about the gathering. D'Antonio is the principal organizer of the gather. My interview with D'Antonio is an NCR podcast: Intentional communities find a way [2]
