

Uncomfortable reflection on Tiller murder

Peter Feuerherd | Jun. 2, 2009 NCR Today

William Saletan has the [most provocative piece of writing \[1\]](#) on the logical conclusions of the extreme pro- and anti-abortion positions I've ever seen. It is a piercing reflection on the murder of Dr. Tiller in Wichita and the entire question in general. It is sure to make anyone who reads it uncomfortable, which I am sure was Saletan's intention.
