

Pax Christi going to Honduras

Dennis Coday | Aug. 12, 2009 NCR Today

Just received a note from Pax Christi USA. Responding to requests from religious partners in Honduras, the Catholic peace group is organizing an "emergency religious delegation." Such international involvement [1] lends protection to local groups of church workers and activists.

Pax Christi is looking for people to join the delegation. They will be in Honduras Aug. 18-25. For details visit the Pax Christi web site [2]. You have to pay your own airfare and expenses.

A note on the web page suggests other delegations may be organized for later dates. Check it out.

Source URL (retrieved on 06/29/2017 - 07:52): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/pax-christi-going-honduras>

Links:

[1] <http://ncronline.org/news/global/delegation-asks-decisive-us-action-honduras>

[2] http://www.paxchristiusa.org/news_events_more.asp?id=1753