

Soul Provider: Making old spirituality new -- Part 1

NCR Podcasts | Sep. 1, 2009

Fr. Edward L. Beck

Episode 1: Climbing the rungs (25 mins.)

Visiting St. Catherine's Monastery in the Sinai desert, Fr. Beck tells Tom Fox, he was inspired by an icon of the Ladder of Divine Ascent, which had been inspired by St. John Climacus' 7th century spiritual guide. "It kind of stuck with me that a spiritual journey can be likened this [icon]. There is ascent and descent and sometimes you fall off. Taking three steps forward and one step back." Even though Climacus had written the book centuries ago, it still seemed relevant, Fr. Beck says "The themes themselves were perennial."

Soul Provider: Making old spirituality new

In his latest book, Soul Provider: Steps to Limitless Love, Passionist Fr. Edward L. Beck gives a contemporary spin to the timeless themes of the seventh-century classic The Ladder of Divine Ascent by St. John Climacus. Beck illustrates St. John Climacus' 30 steps to spiritual fulfillment with anecdotes and examples. A review of the book by the Cleveland Plain Dealer says, "Fr. Beck has assembled a beautiful collection of stories from real people with real problems and real faith."

This is a copy of the icon that inspired St. John Climacus and Fr. Beck.
