At the Virginia Review of Politics, [1]Michael DeFelice joins the ranks of those of us making the argument that Democrats need to reconfigure their abortion-on-demand orthodoxy or they will continue to lose elections.

Archbishop Lori: Call your office! A group of nuns have erected a chapel in the path of a pipelines. Is this a religious liberty case? America, [2]magazine has the story.

The Chicago Tribune [3]reports on Cardinal Blase Cupich's talk at the City Club yesterday. He addressed the important and urgent issue of violence in the city, but read it all the way until the end to see how +Cupich got the press corps laughing at the end.
