A Psalm of Cosmic Communion

by Ed Hays

May I join you, cosmic congregation of galaxies, as you dance with delight before our God.
You spin and leap with brilliant bursts of light, never tiring of your sacred circle-play.

May I join you, star-children of countless constellations, in the worship of our common Creator in your rotating rituals of nuclear energy as you sing cosmic chants of divine fire.

May I join you, I who find my times of devotion so often flat and fireless, bound by routine and uninspired, stagnant due to their lack of zeal.

May I join you, so that my prayers may also spin with sparkling splendor, spawning long tails of luminous devotion to carry my praise and adoration straight to the heart of my Beloved God.
