

An Apology to Women

Thomas C. Fox | Nov. 10, 2009 NCR Today

Yesterday I wrote an article about Sr. Louise Akers' talk [1] at the Call to Action gathering held in Milwaukee over the weekend. Today I received an email from some folks in Australia who, upset by the Akers situation have started a site [2] at which men can apologize ("An Apology to Women") to women "for the continued second class situation that women have to cope with in the Catholic church." I am told, truth be known, the idea originated with a man.

You might want to check it out - and some of you (men) might want to be part of the collective apology.

---

Source URL (retrieved on 05/27/2017 - 11:00): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/apology-women>

Links:

[1] <http://ncronline.org/news/louise-akers-elevates-womens-issues-cta-meeting>

[2] <http://www.apologytowomen.com/>