

A tip of the hat to America magazine

Thomas C. Fox | Dec. 17, 2009 NCR Today

We go to press today with our Dec. 25th issue, our Christmas issue. It's packed with features and news stories, including one about Seattle Fr. Michael Ryan, who has begun a campaign to try to slow down the introduction of a Latinized translation of the Missal. We reported the Ryan story [1] Dec. 10 on this web site, but it is only fair to note again, as we did then, that the story stemmed from an article penned by Ryan that appeared on the America magazine web site and as part of the Dec. 15th issue of America magazine.
