

Wouldn't it be wonderful if the U.S. bishops really got behind nuclear disarmament

Thomas C. Fox | Feb. 10, 2010 NCR Today

The first thing they could do is remind Catholic senators that disarmament is a moral issue and not one that should be politicized for partisanship gain. This is the height of selfishness and shortsightedness.

In the next few month [1] the issues of the U.S. deterrence system and the place of nuclear weapons within it will come to the front burner. It would be timely to hear more from our bishops.
