

Getting back at Stupak

Heidi Schlumpf | Mar. 23, 2010 NCR Today

First the Susan B. Anthony List [1] stripped Michigan Rep. Bart Stupak of previously bestowed "Defender of Life" awards. Now the Illinois Catholic Prayer Breakfast [2] organizers have dis-invited him as this year's keynote speaker.

All because Stupak voted for the health care reform bill that included a executive order to impose restrictions on abortion, rather than the amendment he originally proposed.

With that compromise, Stupak has gone from pro-life role model to a liar, traitor and baby-killer who deserves to rot in hell.

I'm sure he can't wait to work with pro-lifers again soon.
