

New President at CUA

Michael Sean Winters | Jun. 14, 2010 NCR Today

The Catholic University of America will be announcing its new president at a press conference tomorrow morning. A source tells NCR that the CUA Board selected John Garvey, currently Dean of the Law School at Boston College. Garvey will take over the leadership of the nation's only pontifical university from Bishop-elect David M. O'Connell who will be ordained Coadjutor Bishop of Trenton on July 30.

Source URL (retrieved on 06/29/2017 - 04:23): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/new-president-cua>