

What Motivates Christine O'Donnell

Michael Sean Winters | Sep. 24, 2010 Distinctly Catholic

Politics Daily has a very perceptive article [1] about what might have been motivating Christine O'Donnell when she famously discussed her dabbling in witchcraft. The author, Suzi Parker, is spot-on. O'Donnell LIKED discussing taboo topics because it kept the camera on her. You can see the delight she takes in the attention. It is an understandable character flaw in most politicians, but here the flaw seems fatal.
