

Yahoo Watch: CatholicVote.org

How did I miss the fact that CatholicVote.org endorsed Sharron Angle? This is the candidate who ran the single most racist, anti-Latino ad in the country, showing menacing Latino males walking down a dark alley while scary music played in the back and the voice-over warned about immigration. I am wondering if our friends who are so professedly concerned about how Catholics should vote arranged a screening of that ad with Archbishop Gomez?
