

More Election Analysis

Michael Sean Winters | Nov. 4, 2010 Distinctly Catholic

As mentioned, instead of the usual Q & A this week and next, because of the election, I am using this space to feature analysis from prominent Catholics on the recent election.

Over at the newly launched website of Catholics in Alliance for the Common Good, Professor Steve Schneck, director of the Institute for Policy research and Catholic Studies at Catholic University, has an analysis that is both very smart and very depressing. You can read it here [1].
