

USCCB Elects Archbishop Timothy Dolan as President

Michael Sean Winters | Nov. 16, 2010 | Distinctly Catholic

In an unprecedented move, the USCCB declined to promote its Vice-President, Bishop Gerald Kicanas to the presidency. Archbishop Timothy Dolan of New York won with 128 votes to Bishop Kicanas' 111.

Source URL (retrieved on 05/29/2017 - 10:54): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/distinctly-catholic/usccb-elects-archbishop-timothy-dolan-president>