

A Conservative Voice In Favor of the DREAM Act

Michael Sean Winters | Dec. 9, 2010 Distinctly Catholic

Rick Garnett will be familiar to regular readers. A professor of law at the University of Notre Dame, Garnett also is the intellectual force behind the blog "Mirror of Justice" where he has penned a fine, conservative rationale [1] for support of the DREAM Act, which passed the House yesterday. Glad to see someone on the right standing up to the crazy hatefulness that is being spewed at immigrants.
