

Looking for resources on immigration reform?

NCR Staff | Feb. 16, 2011

Immigration and the Church

Image not found
<https://www.ncronline.org/sites/default/files/stories/images/oldimgs/JFI%20logo%20small.gif>

JFI logo, www.justiceforimmigrants.com

Parishes looking for more information and educational material on the U.S. bishops' views on immigration reform can be found at www.justiceforimmigrants.org [1], a site sponsored by the U.S. bishops.

Resources such as suggestions for homilists, statements from Archbishop José Gomez and others, answers to questions such as 'why don't they come here legally' and more are found at the Web site.

Currently, the campaign is encouraging people to send postcards (found on the Web site) calling for immigration reform to their representative and senators in the United States Congress.

To see all of NCR's coverage of immigration, see our new blog: Immigration and the Church [2]. To receive a weekly e-mail update with highlights from the blog, follow this link [3] to the sign-up page. If you already receive e-mail alerts from NCR, add Immigration and the Church to your profile.

Support independent reporting on important issues.

Source URL (retrieved on 06/29/2017 - 05:41): <https://www.ncronline.org/news/looking-resources-immigration-reform>

Links:

[1] <http://www.justiceforimmigrants.org/index.shtml>

[2] <http://ncronline.org/immigration>

[3] <http://ncronline.org/email-alert-signup>

[4] <https://www.ncronline.org/donate?clickSource=article-end>