

'Crazy for energy? Obama, nuclear power, and giant dams in the Ring of Fire'

Rich Heffern | Mar. 23, 2011 Eco Catholic

As President Obama visits Chile, the nation looks toward even riskier solutions for its energy needs -- environment and public safety be damned. Sound familiar?

Columnist George Black blogs on the Natural Resources Defense Council's OnEarth blog [1] about the future energy plans of the South American nation.
