

Listen to the Nuns!

Michael Sean Winters | Mar. 24, 2011 Distinctly Catholic

"Listen to the Nuns" was the advice E.J. Dionne proffered lawmakers last year as they debated the health care reform law. It remains good advice on this the one year anniversary of the passage of the Affordable Care Act. In this morning's Detroit Free Press [1], Sister Mary Ellen Howard of the St. Frances Cabrini Clinic in that city, defends the new law and highlights some of the advances it is already producing.
