

Catholic League vs. NH GOP

Michael Sean Winters | Apr. 7, 2011 | Distinctly Catholic

As noted in the Morning Briefing [1], Catholic League President Bill Donohue has gotten into a verbal shoving match with a couple of GOP state legislators in the Granite State after Donohue attacked House Majority Leader David Bettencourt called Manchester Bishop John McCormack a "pimp." Betten court backed off but two of his colleagues piled on. The Catholic League took umbrage.

Forgive me the schadenfreude, which I know is a sin, and I promise to go to confession, but folks: This is like the Iran-Iraq war. You almost want it to go on for a bit.

Source URL (retrieved on 06/26/2017 - 14:15): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/distinctly-catholic/catholic-league-vs-nh-gop>

Links:

[1] http://www.fosters.com/apps/pbcs.dll/article?AID=/20110407/GJNEWS_01/704079698/-1/FOSNEWS