

Mexican American Catholic College hosts immigration conference

NCR Staff | Oct. 10, 2011

Immigration and the Church

Immigration Symposium, Oct. 19-20, 2011, San Antonio, Texas.

The office of Continuing Education for Ministry at MACC -- Mexican American Catholic College in San Antonio, Texas, is holding an important immigration symposium October 19-20 with the title "Violence on the Border: Consequences and Pastoral Responses"

Bishop Daniel Flores, diocese of Brownsville, Texas, will deliver the keynote. Discussion topics include:

- How are communities of faith responding?
- What needs to be done to bring peace to the border?
- The Relationship between violence and immigration.

For more information or to download the program and registration forms:

http://www.maccsa.org/academics_conted_production.php [1]

Support independent reporting on important issues.

Source URL (retrieved on 06/23/2017 - 00:27): <https://www.ncronline.org/news/mexican-american-catholic-college-hosts-immigration-conference>

Links:

[1] http://www.macsa.org/academics_conted_production.php

[2] <https://www.ncronline.org/donate?clickSource=article-end>