

More resources on 'Quest for the Living God'

Pam Hackenmiller | Oct. 28, 2011 NCR Today

In a statement released this morning from the U.S. Catholic Conference, the bishops' Committee on Doctrine reaffirmed their March critique of the book 'Quest For The Living God' By St. Joseph Sr. Elizabeth Johnson, saying it is an inadequate expression of Catholic faith [1].

Sr. Elizabeth Johnson responded to the reaffirmation this morning [2].

Jesuit Fr. Michael Buckley wrote a column for NCR [3] on the fact that the bishops seem to have ignored the guidelines laid out by "Doctrinal Responsibilities."

Check out more NCR coverage. [4]

---

Source URL (retrieved on 07/23/2017 - 08:20): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/more-resources-quest-living-god>

Links:

[1] <http://ncronline.org/news/theology/bishops-reaffirm-%E2%80%98quest-living-god%E2%80%99-not-adequate-theology>

[2] <http://cnsblog.wordpress.com/2011/10/28/response-from-sister-elizabeth-johnson-to-us-bishops-committee-on-doctrines-latest-statement/>

[3] <http://ncronline.org/news/faith-parish/doctrinal-responsibilities-evenhanded-open-and-fair>

[4] <http://ncronline.org/search/node/%22Quest%20for%20the%20Living%20God%3A%20Mapping%20Frontiers%20in%20>