

A few famous sisters

Dennis Coday | Apr. 26, 2012 NCR Today

Did you see this feature on the Washington Post website:

A few famous nuns [1]

In light of the Vatican's action on Wednesday, here is a list of nuns who have become known in the broader world. Two of the Americans listed have been canonized.

No real surprises in the slide show: Mother Teresa, Elizabeth Ann Seton, Katharine Drexel. Typing "catholic sister" in Google images will give you these search results. Let's be a bit more creative.

How about: Anita Caspary, Margaret Brennan, Dorothy Stang, Mary Luke Tobin, Joan Chittister?

Chime in here: Who are women religious who should have been named to that list? Post their photos to the Facebook page: Support Our Catholic Sisters [2]

Source URL (retrieved on 05/23/2017 - 05:57): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/few-famous-sisters>

Links:

[1] http://www.washingtonpost.com/local/a-few-famous-nuns/2012/04/19/gIQAgdIfTT_gallery.html#photo=9&utm_campaign=FutureChurch+March+2012+E-News&utm_medium=email

[2] <https://www.facebook.com/SupportOurCatholicSisters>