

In San Juan, Texas, 15 gather to pray for sisters

Alice Popovici | May. 9, 2012

Al Dabrowski, Call To Action member and organizer for the Nun Justice Project [1] in the Rio Grande Valley area, said the stormy evening weather likely kept some people home Tuesday, when a group of 15 gathered for a prayer vigil to support Catholic nuns at the Basilica of our Lady of San Juan del Valle in San Juan.

The prayer vigils, planned in select cities every Tuesday in May, are part of a nationwide effort launched by The Nun Justice Project and supported by local Catholic groups.

If you attended the vigil in San Juan, Texas, or know someone who attended, please leave a comment.

Source URL (retrieved on 06/22/2017 - 07:31): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/san-juan-texas-15-gather-pray-sisters>

Links:

[1] <http://nunjustice.tumblr.com/>