

Second Louisville, Ky., vigil draws about 120

Alice Popovici | May. 16, 2012

"The spirit is wonderful. It seems the sisters have captured something in people's hearts," said Helen Deines, a retired professor who organized the event, in an email. Whereas the first vigil at Louisville's Cathedral of the Assumption on May 8 drew 78 people, Tuesday's (May 15) event was attended by about 120.

Source URL (retrieved on 06/24/2017 - 02:21): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/second-louisville-ky-vigil-draws-about-120>