

Nearly 250 attend "Solidarity with Sisters" rally in Washington, D.C.

Alice Popovici | May. 30, 2012

Organizers of a rally to support Catholic nuns say between 200 and 250 people gathered near the Vatican Embassy Tuesday, where they heard speeches and stories of inspiration, according to this report [1] on the "Solidarity with Sisters" website. Two from the group then met with the papal nuncio, Archbishop Carlo Maria Vigano.
