

Morning Briefing

Thomas C. Fox | Jul. 30, 2012 NCR Today

San Francisco Catholics see challenges for new archbishop [1] By choosing a staunch same-sex marriage foe as San Francisco's new archbishop, the Vatican has laid bare a rift among local Catholics, some of whom strongly support the church's position while others emphatically don't.

New San Francisco archbishop was Prop 8 architect

[2] In a move certain to be seen as provocative by some, the Vatican named a new San Francisco archbishop who is renowned for his support of immigrants but infamous for his role in the success of California's same-sex marriage ban.

Catholic fertility methods help Chicago woman conceive

[3] While Chicago has become one of the nation's hubs for advanced reproductive technology such as IVF, Omaha has become a hub for alternative fertility care. Pope

Catholic diocese backs out of mansion sale on gay wedding fear

[4]

Catholic schools see marketing aid enrollment

[5]

Source URL (retrieved on 05/29/2017 - 10:34): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/morning-briefing-781>

Links:

[1] <http://www.sfgate.com/bayarea/article/Catholics-see-challenges-for-archbishop-3744975.php>

[2] <http://www.sfexaminer.com/local/2012/07/new-sf-archbishop-was-prop-8-architect>

[3] <http://www.chicagotribune.com/news/local/ct-met-catholic-infertility-sidebar-20120730,0,1551164.story>

[4] <http://www.pinknews.co.uk/2012/07/30/us-catholic-diocese-backs-out-of-mansion-sale-on-gay-wedding-fear/>

[5] <http://www.ajc.com/news/nation-world/catholic-schools-see-marketing-1486927.html>