

NCR offices, comments closed for Labor Day

Pam Hackenmiller | Sep. 3, 2012 NCR Today

NCR's offices are closed today for Labor Day, and to avoid pileups in the comments section, we have decided to turn comments off for the day, since no new content will be posted.

We apologize for any inconvenience but we hope you will use this opportunity to enjoy some relaxing time with friends and family.

The comments section will return in full force on Tuesday, when the NCR offices reopen.
