

Dems For Life in Key Races

Michael Sean Winters | Oct. 10, 2012 Distinctly Catholic

Democrats for Life of America has up a list of pro-life Democrats it is supporting. You can find their list here [1]

As I said in my talk in Colorado Monday night, pro-life Dems and pro-immigration reform Republicans are the most precious people in our political culture today. If you live in a district where one of these pro-life Democrats are running, I hope you will consider voting for them. And, if you have the means to send them a check, all the better. And, sending a check to Democrats for Life is a good idea too. Not only are they right on the abortion issue, but they stand for the kind of bipartisan politics that are so desperately needed in this polarized time in our nation's politics.
