

One of the New Cardinals: Abp Onaiyekan

Michael Sean Winters | Oct. 24, 2012 Distinctly Catholic

Archbishop John Onaiyekan of Abuja, Nigeria, was named a cardinal by the Holy Father this morning. Abp Onaiyekan was in Washington last month to participate in the symposium on International Religious Liberty sponsored by the Institute for Policy Research & Catholic Studies at CUA, the USCCB and CRS. Here is a link to the video [1] of the panel on which Abp Onaiyekan participated. (For the first few minutes, we were struggling to close off the access to the adjoining room, so there is a bit of background noise, but that disappears after a couple of minutes.)
