

Cokie Roberts: Help the Nuns!

Michael Sean Winters | Dec. 3, 2012 Distinctly Catholic

At the USCCB website, Cokie Roberts has penned a really beautiful tribute [1] to the contribution women religious have made to this country. Her post comes in advance of the national collection for the retirement funds of our religious men and women. These holy men and women have been generous their whole lives with us laity, indeed, spending the entirety of their lives for us, helping them out in their latter years is truly the least we can do. Please be generous.
