An NCR special edition, October 11, 2012

The National Catholic Reporter published a special edition of the newspaper on October 11, 2012, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council.

This content is not available online. You have to subscribe to NCR to read these articles!

NCR has gathered many of the Church's leading scholars and witnesses to the Church-changing council so you are there as it begins.

As you read the pages of this anniversary issue, you will be with these writers in the here-and-now. These scholars, witnesses and journalists will walk you through the subsequent history and implementation of the Council's decrees, down to the present. Topics will range from collegiality to women's congregations, human sexuality to theology, and on across the spectrum of subjects precious and essential to Catholic Christianity in a dynamic and changing Church.
