About Us

For five decades, National Catholic Reporter has provided an independent voice for Catholics and people of faith. We report on church issues and social concerns to inform and inspire, while providing avenues for expression of diverse perspectives, promoting tolerance and respect for differing ideas.

We recently celebrated our 50th anniversary, and we are proud of our legacy and honored to continue our mission. Learn more about our company mission, vision and values.

Who We Are
