

Maryland Catholic Conference & Death Penalty

Michael Sean Winters | Jan. 15, 2013 | Distinctly Catholic

The Maryland Catholic Conference sent out one of its "Issue Alerts" yesterday to all Catholics in the Archdioceses of Baltimore and Maryland who subscribe to their email list-serve, urging them to contact their state legislators on behalf of Governor Martin O'Malley's proposal to ban the death penalty in Maryland. Here is a link [1] to the webpage at the MCC. Fighting the death penalty does not, of course, exhaust the pro-life cause, it does not enervate it. A society that fights cruelty anywhere is a society more likely to fight cruelty everywhere. This initiative of Gov. O'Malley's deserves support and the MCC is to be commended for being out front on the issue also.

---

Source URL (retrieved on 05/27/2017 - 16:14): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/distinctly-catholic/maryland-catholic-conference-death-penalty>

Links:

[1] <http://capwiz.com/mdcath/issues/alert/?alertid=62330586>