

Two Events, One in DC & One in Colorado

Michael Sean Winters | Jan. 21, 2013 | Distinctly Catholic

Tomorrow, January 22, I will be participating in a panel discussion "CUA Meets the Press" in which we will discuss what to expect from Obama's second term. Joining me on the panel will be the Washington Post's Melinda Henneberger, Rachel Swarns from the New York Times, and Greg Erlandson, publisher of Our Sunday Visitor. The event is 7-9 p.m. at the Pryzbyla Center on the campus of Catholic University, and it is free and open to the public. To find out more, click here [1].

Next Monday, I will be in Boulder, Colorado to debate Father Robert Sirico of the Acton Institute. We will be debating the question: Can the Free Market Adequately Care for the Poor? You can find out more about that event by clicking here [2].
