

Good News on Health Care (And we need some)

Michael Sean Winters | Feb. 8, 2013 | Distinctly Catholic

While the Catholic intelligentsia is focused on the HHS mandate, an important development is occurring that should warm our hearts: GOP governors are increasingly agreeing to expand Medicaid under the terms of the ACA. This is very good news for the nation's poor and working poor. Ron Brownstein at the National Journal has the story here [1].
