

NoLa Priest On Ryan's Budget

Michael Sean Winters | Mar. 27, 2013 Distinctly Catholic

Father Michael Jacques calls the recently passed GOP House budget "shameful" in this essay at a New Orleans alternative paper, the Lens [1]. I had expressed the hope that Congressman Paul Ryan's stated desire to en flesh more Aquinas than Rand would begin to show up in his numbers but as Fr. Jacques points out, we are still getting an essentially Randian view of government's obligations to the poor which is to view them with contempt.
