

Remembering Cardinal Casaroli

Michael Sean Winters | Mar. 28, 2013 Distinctly Catholic

Cardinal Agostino Casaroli was the often controversial Secretary of State who engineered the Ostpolitik between the Holy See and various communist regimes. He also turned out to be a holy priest who spent time visiting the imprisoned at the Casal del Marmo where Pope Francis will celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper. Vatican Insider has the story [1], a story that proves the Vatican Curia was not always filled with those who ambioned only for their own prestige.
