

Provocative Article on (Gay) Marriage

Michael Sean Winters | Apr. 12, 2013 Distinctly Catholic

As if the debate on gay marriage was not provocative enough! This article by Patrick Dineen [1] I commend because it will make both the left and the right squirm. It echoes the point I have been making, namely, that we lost the fight for traditional marriage fifty years ago with the introduction of no-fault divorce laws, but Dineen goes further and points to the ways the ambient culture can be conservative in ways that accelerate the decline of traditional marriage. Interesting stuff.
