Schüller Tipping Point Tour

"A Catholic Tipping Point: Conversations with Fr. Helmut Schüller [1]" is a summer speaking tour of the United States by Fr. Helmut Schüller, founder of the Austrian Priests' Initiative, a group of Austrian priests pushing for institutional reforms in the Catholic church.

The tour starts July 16 in New York City and ends Aug. 6 on Long Island. Along the way, Schüller will be stopping at Boston; Philadelphia; Baltimore; Washington, D.C.; Chicago; Cleveland; Detroit; Cincinnati; Denver; San Diego; Los Angeles; Portland, Ore.; and Seattle. See this website for details: The Catholic Tipping Point. [2]

Watch the NCR website throughout the tour for updates and news on the trip.

Organizations sponsoring the tour are Call to Action, Catholics in Alliance for the Common Good, CORPUS, DignityUSA, FutureChurch, National Coalition of Nuns, New Ways Ministry, Voice of the Faithful, Quixote Center, and Women's Ordination Conference.
