

RC Millennials & Climate Change

Michael Sean Winters | Jun. 4, 2013 Distinctly Catholic

Dan DiLeo, writing at Millennial Journal [1], has a good article on why Catholic Millennials need to step up in the fight to put climate change more centrally on the political agenda of the nation - and the world. Part of the reason? For more than twenty years, our popes have been speaking very forcefully on the topic, indeed, often in ways that would get them labeled a socialist or worse by Fox News!
