

Catholic-Jewish Dialogue Evolving

Michael Sean Winters | Jun. 14, 2013 Distinctly Catholic

Alessandro Speciale at Vatican Insider [1] on the on-going dialogue between Catholics and Jews, Pope Francis' involvement, and the way that dialogue is deepening the faith of both groups. When one considers the tragic history, and not just tragic but often criminal, of the way Catholics and other Christians have treated Jews, this kind of report gives one a deep hope that we are not, in fact, condemned to repeat history but can, by God's grace, and with the right disposition, transcend it.
