Cheboygan, Mich. -- Remains of 19th-century priest return home. In the 1860s, Fr. Philip Seraphin Zorn was at one point in charge of four missions and nine parishes in the Northern Lower Peninsula.

Not sure if we reported this earlier or not: Roman Catholic Gay Priest Hookup Site said to be controlled by a fraternity of "homo-sensitive priests looking for like-minded priests."

New bishop prepares to lead El Paso Catholics. He takes as his motto: "Paratum cor Meum," meaning "My heart is ready." (Psalm 57)

Looking for an a little inspiration to begin your day? NCR's sister publication, Celebration, gives you two options, both based on the Scripture readings of the day:

Pencil Preaching is blog that Celebration editor Pat Marrin combines scripture and sketching to reflect on the word.

Daily Bread is a series short reflections, written by four authors who meet regularly to share the readings. Daily Bread is intended to help daily preachers and others who pray from the assigned scriptures each day to orient themselves to the Living Word addressed to the church in the world. It's a great way to begin the day.
