CUA Symposium on Jewish-RC Relations

by Michael Sean Winters

Distinctly Catholic

Catholic University's Department of History and the School of Theology and Religious Studies present "Catholic Teaching and the Jews: A Revolution?" Discussing John Connelly's From Enemy to Brother. Connelly, professor of history at the University of California, Berkeley will be joined by Matthew Tapie, visiting assistant professor of moral theology and ethics at Catholic University, and Piotr Kosicki, assistant professor of history at the University of Maryland, to discuss Connelly's book From Enemy to Brother: The Revolution in Catholic Teaching on the Jews 1933-1965.

The event will be held at CUA on September 12, 5-7 p.m. at Hannan Hall, Room 108. Regular readers will recall that I reviewed this masterful book in two parts. You can find those reviews here and here.
